Getting help in a mental health crisis - Southwark

Information for residents, our patients & those close to them

What is a crisis?

Having a mental health crisis means different things to different people.

You might feel so distressed that you want to harm yourself, or someone else.

Or you might hear unpleasant voices, or feel that people are watching you or trying to hurt you.

It could help to tell someone you trust, maybe a family member or a friend. They can be with you and help you decide what to do. They can also contact services on your behalf.

If you are in contact with a mental health service:

Check your care plan, if you have one, and:

During office hours - contact your care coordinator or the duty number for the team that is supporting you.

Your care coordinator name and number:

Out of hours Call 0800 731 2864 (Option 1) to speak to South London and Maudsley NHS 24 hour crisis line.

If you need urgent help:

Call 111 to speak to the national NHS helpline for anyone with an urgent healthcare need that isn't a 999 emergency.

Tell them if you need a translator. They can give you self-care advice and connect you to a nurse, GP or other relevant service.

Call 0800 731 2864 (Option 1) for our local 24 hour mental health crisis line

Please avoid visiting hospital A&E (Accident and Emergency) departments unless you have a physical health emergency. The numbers above can connect you to a crisis service.

If anyone is at risk of serious harm call 999 and ask for an ambulance, or the police.

If you need less urgent help:

Don't suffer in silence. Get help. You could:

- Speak to your GP. They can put you in touch with local services.
- Refer yourself for free NHS therapy. If you are registered with a Southwark GP, fill out the form at www.slam-iapt.nhs.uk/southwark or call 020 3228 2194.
